Written Communications Workshop

The Written Communications Workshop teaches professional writing techniques you'll need on Capitol Hill, for publication, and for many jobs in public policy organizations.

This workshop is intended for both print and online writers. Learn how to present your views effectively in this two-night training.

Attendees will learn how to:

- Break into conservative journalism
- Write persuasively and professionally
- Draft effective press releases and media advisories
- Use social media to promote your work
- Get published
